To All Marvic Supply Customers

Re: Ownership Announcement

Effective October 9th, 2021, SRS Distribution, a powerhouse in exterior building materials distribution acquired Marvic Supply. This change in ownership was completed with the support of the owners/senior leadership of Marvic Supply.

Our support is based on the knowledge that joining forces with SRS Distribution – a family of independent distributors that has a network of branches across the U.S. – will allow Marvic Supply to continue to deliver top-quality products and responsive customer service at competitive prices. Please rest easy knowing that the Marvic Supply commitment to ensuring your business grows and prospers will continue as it has for over 50 years.

The Marvic Supply name and all employees will remain intact, in fact SRS plans to expand our family of locations based on the superior reputation of Marvic Supply in the region.

Our customers were at the forefront of our minds as we made this bittersweet decision to move into a new phase of ownership of Marvic Supply. For 54 years our family focused on your success as the driver of every decision at our company. We assure you that moving forward everyone at each Marvic Supply branch will continue to dedicate every effort to fulfilling the needs of professional residential and commercial contractors, remodelers, and builders throughout the region.

During the transition to the SRS Distribution systems there may be occasional hurdles for us to work through. Please know we will work hard to anticipate and quickly resolve any issues that may arise.

Thank you for your business and continuing support.

Sincerely,
Dave, Wes, and Rich

P.S. We look forward to seeing you during the Marvic Supply Trade Show February 15, 2022 at the Wind Creek Casino in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. More details will follow later this Fall.
